CIRCULAR

Following the meeting held on 25 December 2012 by the Commission Consultative d'Octroi de Cartes d'Identité Professionnelle (Consultative Commission on Issuing Professional Identity Cards), it has been determined that attestations of employment or training issued by production companies are not compliant with the status of applicants.

In light of the foregoing, and in compliance with the resolutions mentioned in the minutes of the meeting, the managers of production companies are hereby notified that:

- each production company must issue the attestation of training or employment in line with the status of the applicant, otherwise that attestation shall be deemed inadmissible
- each attestation of issued by production companies must include:
 - the director's name
 - the film-shooting period
 - the film's duration and support, and
 - an indication that the person concerned is a trainee, for persons who do not hold professional identity cards.
